TERM	DEFINITION
Ground Rent	The rent payable to the Landlord by the Lessee as required by the lease.
HMO	A "House in Multiple Occupation" as defined by section 257 of the Housing Act 2004 and the subject of regulations referred to in that Act.
Landlord	The person or company which owns and rents or leases the Property. This person may also own the freehold or may have a superior leasehold interest.
Landlord's certificate	The Landlord's Certificate under The Building Safety (Leaseholder Protections) (England) Regulations 2022 where the property is a relevant building (11 meters or more in height or at least 5 storeys) and the Regulations apply.
Leaseholder Deed of Certificate	The Leaseholder's Certificate under the Building Safety (Leaseholder Protections) (Information etc.) (England) Regulations 2022 where the building is a relevant building (11 meters or more in height or at least 5 storeys and contains at least 2 dwellings) and is not leaseholder-owned, and the leaseholder protections apply under the Building Safety Act.
Lessees	The owners of properties in the Managed Area.
Managed Area	The properties including the building containing the Property, together with any land, managed by or on behalf of the Landlord under the terms of the lease. Managed Areas are sometimes called common parts.
Management Company	A Management Company referred to in the Lease or a Right to Manage Company created under the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002, to provide services and administer the terms of the Lease either directly or through Managing Agents.
Managing Agent	A person or organisation which acts on behalf of the Landlord, the Management Company or tenant's Right to Manage Company with their terms of reference, subject to any legal restrictions.
Property	The building and land which makes up the subject property as defined by the lease.
Reserve Fund	A fund collected from the lessees which allows the build-up of monies to pay for repair and replacement of major items or to equalise cyclical expenditure such as external decoration, avoiding excessive peaks in the Service Charge. Reference to Reserve Fund within this document should be taken to include any sinking fund or replacement fund in existence.

Residents'/Tenants' Association	A group of some or all lessees with or without a formal constitution or corporate status, or a recognised residents association which is 'recognised' by law and with a formal constitution.
Right to Manage Company	A company owned by the lessees that manages the Managed Areas within their terms of reference, subject to any limitations.
Service Charge	The amount payable by a lessee as part of, or in addition to, rent in respect of services, repairs, maintenance, insurance, improvements or costs of management. The amount payable may vary according to the costs incurred or to be incurred.
Section 20	Section 20 of the Landlord & Tenant Act 1985, which requires that there be consultation with the lessees in respect of certain works.

Please complete the information requested. It is important that the incoming lessee is fully aware of their obligations so the information given must be as accurate as possible. If there is insufficient space, continue on a separate sheet.
